

JAMIE J. BROWN

Dr. Jamie J. Brown embodies a remarkable fusion of resilience, advocacy, and empowerment, thriving in two distinct worlds as a hard-of-hearing individual. With over three decades of immersive experience within the deaf communities and the hearing population, Ms. Brown emerges as a beacon of inspiration, dedicated to bridging communication, and fostering greatness in both the deaf and hearing spheres. As the visionary Chief Empowerment Officer & Founder of JBEMPOWERS COACHING & CONSULTING, Ms. Brown is a Certified Professional Life Coach, Consultant, Author, and relentless advocate for the Deaf. Her accolades, including the prestigious Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award and an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Humanities, underscore her profound impact and unwavering dedication.

Fluent in both English and American Sign Language, Ms. Brown serves as a mentor, guiding students towards confidence and competence in effective communication within the Deaf community. Ms. Brown is an esteemed graduate of the International Coaching & Leadership Institute RISING (ICLI RISING) and actively contributes to esteemed organizations such as the National Black Deaf Advocates, the National Association of the Deaf, the International Christian Coaching Association and the American Association of Christian Counselors. Her commitment to global impact is unwavering, driven by her mission to bridge the gap between the deaf and hearing worlds through faith, empowerment, awareness, education, and encouragement. With a steadfast resolve, Dr. Jamie J. Brown continues to champion the rights and potential of the Deaf and hard-of-hearing communities, embodying a legacy of compassion, advocacy, and empowerment.